HAPPY, HECTIC '57 PUMPKIN SHOW STARTS

Brothers Frank and Don, also of Route 2, Ashville, were busy hauling more pumpkins to the display while George arranged them. The Coons took first and second in the variety show last year and have won first prizes at the Ohio State Fair three years running. (Photo by Beaver Studio)

Chimes Launch 'Greatest Free Show on Earth'

Hopalong Cassidy Top Attraction In Beauty Parade

The melodic tones of the Foreman Chimes, high in the Pickaway County Courthouse tower, launched the 1957 Circleville Pumpkin Show at 2 p. m. today.

Promptly at 2:15 the opening ceremonies in the heart of the city officially opened the show. Previously, the rides and concession stands opened at noon to a small and expectant crowd.

The first big event of the day was to be the initial concert of the United States Army Field Band, in front of the Elks Lodge at 3 p. m.

The Little Miss Pumpkin Show parade was slated to start at 4 p. m. and selection of the junior version of the Pumpkin Show queen was set to follow at 5 p. m.

KIDS THROUGHOUT the area were converging on Circleville in the spirit of the Pumpkin Show, holding off on the predicted rain, at least until festivities got under way.

The famous TV cowboy and his horse Topper, a beautiful 24-year-old white, were to appear here through the courtesy of the Med-O-Pure Dairy.

The weatherman seemed to be in the spirit of the Pumpkin Show, holding off on the predicted rain, at least until festivities got under way.

The forecast is for no important changes in temperatures for the next five days. Occasional rain is forecast for today, tomorrow but ending on Friday.

Special signs were being placed on Route 23 for Pumpkin Show visitors by the State Highway Department. They direct traffic to the heart of the city, and are a special gesture by the state indicating the importance of the annual Mardi Gras.

Today's program calls for concerts by the Amanda High School Band, Walnut Twp. High School Band, Ashville-Harrison High School Band, Grove City High School Band, Jackson High School Band, and the Groveport High School Band.

THE FREE ACT is slated for 3:30 p. m. and 7 p. m. on W. Main St. and for 9:30 p. m. on the Court House lawn. Gerald Soules, the Great Leon, presents slack wire and trapeze artistry.

Judging of baked goods and flower show exhibits were to start later today.

Queen Slated To Arrive in Old Virginia

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — The pendulum of time swings back 350 years today for Virginia, America and Queen Elizabeth II of England.

The British monarch chose to open a six-day visit to the United States in a stored segment of tide-water Virginia.

After she lands at Newport News, Va., the Queen and her consort, Prince Philip, were to tour Jamestown and Williamsburg for five hours, then attend a reception and dinner as part of the 350th anniversary celebration of the first permanent British settlement in the new world.

Thursday the royal couple will fly to Washington. They will fly home from New York City early Tuesday.

Williamsburg is the region of the tale of Pocahontas and Captain John Smith.

And here on this historic peninsula between the James and York rivers, Britain's 13 American colonies and the Revolutionary War were lost.

The Queen flew to Williamsburg from Ottawa, Canada, after four days of regal duties and glittering social events. Her last full day in Canada was climaxed Tuesday night by a reception for more than 1,300 persons and a formal dinner party for 20 given by Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker.

Banks Receive Calls

WASHINGTON — The controller of the currency today issued a call for a statement of the condition of all national banks at the close of business Oct. 11.

Fund Just $1,670 From 1957 Goal

The 1957 Pickaway County Community Fund campaign is only $1,670.50 from its goal. A few checks from those who were missed during the solicitation period could put the drive "over the top."

It was announced today that a total of $27,029.50 has been collected. That is about 94 per cent of the $28,700 goal.

Although there are one or two reports still to be made, it was fairly certain that the goal will not be reached unless by special effort.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Mason, campaign co-chairman, today urged all volunteer solicitors to "make that last call" in order to gain the goal.

They asked that solicitors call back on those who were not at home during the drive to obtain the much-needed fund gifts. If all who were not solicited during the drive would send a gift, by check, to the campaign treasurer, the goal can be topped.

CHECKS SHOULD be sent to Harry Clifton, Circleville Savings and Banking Co., N. Court St., Circleville.

The Pickaway County Community Fund finances the county-wide operations of the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Youth Canteen and Salvation Army.

AN EDITORIAL

With the 1957 Community Fund goal within sight now is the time for special effort.

Wouldn't it be grand to say "We went over the top. Our community faces up to its responsibilities."

A successful fund campaign for five worthy agencies gives everyone a good feeling. A successful fund campaign can be the spur for other successful community enterprises.

We all like success and we all want to be part of a vital, heart-warming experience. So, make that special effort to put the 1957 Community Fund over the top.

Sidelights along the Midway

Pumpkin Show Pickin's

Two cotton plants are included in Frank Grice's display of pumpkins this year. According to Grice, he just threw some cotton seeds in his Ashville backyard earlier this year and up came the plants.

A familiar face that spells trouble for would-be lawbreakers, is that of Jim Greedon, 78, former assistant chief of Columbus city detectives. Creedon here for his 30th Pumpkin Show, is a specialist at discovering con-men and pickpockets.

John Enright, manager of the Gooding Amusement Co. is taking part in his 35th Pumpkin Show. He started here in 1907. Enright directs the operation of seven adult and five kiddie rides.

Samuel D. Eddy, Columbus, lost both of his forearms in an accident at the age of six, will be on hand as usual this year at his jewelry stand. Eddy who built the stand despite his handicap, says "I can do what I want to do." He advises mothers of handicapped children not to "baby" them, but let them express themselves. Eddy says this is his 22nd year at the Pumpkin Show. For the last 18 or 19 years, he says, an elderly lady has come to his stand on Thursday or Friday and spent exactly $4. "I always have something nice for her," says the proprietor. According to Eddy, one reason the Pumpkin Show is as big and successful as it is, "because every stand, show and ride is legitimate. The riff-raff is kept out."

City police have solved their problem as far as eating is concerned.

Aware that they will be working long hours, the patrolmen have set up kitchen arrangements in the Fraternal Order of Police lodge room on the third floor of city hall.

Today's menu calls for vegetable soup, sandwiches, coffee and pumpkin pie, naturally. Johnmarzetti will be the main dish tomorrow.

Getting into the spirit of things

Louisiana Community Is Hit by Tornado

OPELOUSAS, La. — A tornado smashed homes and trees Tuesday night as it swirled through Opelousas. Nineteen persons were injured.

State troopers said five or six homes were leveled.

The tornado struck about 10 p. m. and was accompanied by heavy rains. It cut a northward path from the Cypress Grove section of St. Landry Parish toward State Highway 31 about four miles east of Opelousas.

U.S. Ready To Defend Turks --- Dulles

Diplomat Says Soviet To Be No 'Sanctuary'

WASHINGTON — Secretary of State Dulles said today the United States must be on guard against the possibility of an attack by Syria and Russia against Turkey.

Dulles said that in event of such an attack the United States would not leave the Soviet Union as a privileged sanctuary.

Along with his grim warning, Dulles said he thinks an outbreak of war in the Middle East is unlikely, largely because of the United Nations' focus of attention on the area.

In the United Nations today, Syria called for an urgent U. N. inquiry into an "intolerably dangerous" situation on the Turkish-Syrian border.

The move was made by Syrian Foreign Minister Salah Bitar, who charged that concentration of Turkish troops along Syria's border "presages imminent attack."

HE ASKED the U. N. General Assembly to act urgently on what he called "threats to the security of Syria and to international peace."

There was no immediate reaction from the U. S. delegation, but informed quarters expressed belief the United States would oppose putting the question on the 82-nation Assembly's agenda.

In Damascus Tuesday, the Syrian Foreign Ministry summoned foreign diplomats and presented a declaration that Turkey intends to "launch a premeditated action against Syria."

Earlier, Egyptian reinforcements had arrived in Syria.

Turkey handed a letter to U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold late Tuesday accusing the Syrian government of echoing Soviet propaganda attacks on the Turkish government.

Much of the news conference with Dulles today dealt with recent threats by Soviet Communist boss Nikita Khrushchev against Turkey. Khrushchev has based his belligerent talk on the idea that Turkey is threatening to attack Syria, pro-Soviet Arab nation in the Middle East.

Dulles was asked to be more specific about what he had in mind as to U. S. reaction in the event of an attack on Turkey. He was asked particularly to say whether he meant that the United States would attack any nation which started an aggression against Turkey.

IF THERE is an attack on Turkey by the Soviet Union, Dulles said, it would not mean merely a defensive operation by the United States with the Soviet Union as a privileged sanctuary.

During the Korean War the phrase "privileged sanctuary" meant the China area north of the Yalu River from which Red planes took off to attack U. N. forces but where their bases were not subject to attack.

Dulles said seemed to be saying, though he stated it negatively, that the United States would fight to defend Turkey if Turkey was attacked and it would strike directly at Soviet territory.

Dulles ruled out any direct negotiations between the United States and Russia to carve up the world and establish what he called an overlordship of other nations.

He said the Soviets have long awaited a Moscow - Washington deal to that end, but he said the United States and Russia are not the only powers in the world and this country would have nothing to do with trying to tell other countries what to do.

At the same time, he said that meetings such as his recent talk with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko are useful because they lead to better understanding by Russian and American leaders of opposing policies.

63 in Spain Die During Record Flood

VALENCIA, Spain — In the first sunshine in nearly a week, rescue workers today searched for additional victims of floods that killed at least 63 persons. More than 50 were missing.

Thousands were left homeless by the worst floods in modern Spanish history.

Council Eyes Pay Increases

Solons May Boost Own Annual Wages

Proposals for pay raises were the only important issues before City Council last night as the solons met in an abbreviated pre-Pumpkin Show session.

Since only five lawmakers were present there were no ordinances passed.

New higher wages for firemen, Service Department personnel, Council president and councilmen were discussed.

Placed on first reading were ordinances boosting the pay of Council president to $600 yearly and pay of councilmen to the same figure. Currently the solons are getting $300 a year.

The Service Committee recommended legislation be prepared increasing hourly rates of Service Department foremen from $1.50 to $1.75, truck drivers from $1.20 to $1.40 and laborers from $1.10 to $1.30.

Further legislation is due at the next Council meeting increasing firemen's wages and possibly setting up two lieutenant posts with in the department. Competitive examinations to fill the officers' posts would have to be held.

News Briefs

WASHINGTON — The top two members of the House Appropriations Committee said today that Russia's launching of a satellite doesn't necessarily require increased U. S. defense spending.

What it does mean, said Chairman Cannon (D-Mo) and Rep. Taber (R-N.Y.), senior GOP member of the committee, is that the United States must cease being complacent, stop underestimating Soviet progress and concentrate on missile programs.

PARIS — Electricity and gas workers brought industry to a virtual halt throughout France today with a 24-hour strike for higher wages.

Radio and television went off the air, telephones went dead, subways, trains and elevators stopped running. Newspaper presses halted and late morning editions failed to appear.

WASHINGTON — A government scientist says Russia's Sputnik, which has circled the earth for 12 days, may plunge from its orbit and burst into flames within a week.

That view, expressed by Robert Jastrow of the Naval Research Laboratory here, generally runs counter to other Western predictions that the satellite might remain aloft for several months, possibly a year.

Students by the thousands were forced to stay away from classes today as outbreaks of influenza caused shutdowns in schools in scattered sections of Ohio.

Show Changes Traffic Flow

Police Announce Route 22 Detour

The Pumpkin Show has created a change in east and westbound traffic flowing through Circleville.

According to city police eastbound traffic on Route 22 will turn south on Scioto to Mound St., turn left and travel east to Mingo St., turn left on Mingo and head east on Route 22.

To facilitate this flow of traffic, police said no parking will be allowed on W. Main St. between Scioto St. and Western Ave. and on S. Scioto St. between Main and Franklin Sts.

Westbound vehicles will come in E. Main St. to Washington St., turn right and travel to High St., turn left and travel on Western Ave., turn left and travel to W. Main St. and travel on westward on Route 22.

NO PARKING will be permitted on Western Ave. between High and Main Sts.

During parades eastbound traffic will be directed down Western Ave. instead of Scioto St. While parades are being formed no parking will be permitted on E. Main St. between Pickaway and Washington Sts.

Parking space will be reserved for school buses on N. Pickaway St. between Main and High Sts. for school buses carrying bands.

Police emphasized that extra precaution be taken at all intersections due to the heavy flow of de-toured traffic. Last year during the Pumpkin Show a fatal accident occurred at Mound and Pickaway Sts.

70 Compete For Little Miss Crown

Pert little first graders—a bout 70 strong—will compete in the Little Miss Pumpkin Show parade and competition today.

The youngsters will be in a parade starting at 4 p. m. and will compete for the title at 5 p. m. on the W. Main St. platform.

Three prizes will be awarded to the top three contestants. Little Miss Pumpkin Show will reign over her portion of the annual Pumpkin Show until a successor is chosen next year.

She will appear in every parade, along with the second and third place winners, on the special Little Miss Pumpkin Show float.

Judges of the contest this year are Vic Donahue, secretary of the Motorist Mutual Ins. Co., Columbus; Miss Betty Jones and Miss Ann Reider, both of WBNS-TV, Columbus.

THE WINNER will be chosen for her looks, personality, and grooming.

The Little Miss Pumpkin Show portion of the show is being handled by the Circleville Junior Chamber of Commerce, Jack Plummer in charge.

Three Drunken Drivers Fined

Dozen Motorists Face Judge Shea

Three motorists accused of driving under the influence of intoxicants appeared in Circleville Municipal Court yesterday.

One of the drivers, Roger L. Davis, 21, Stoutsville, was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for six months. Arrested by city police it marked his second intoxicated driving offense.

Carl A. Tobin, 40, 361 E. Ohio St., and Richard E. Woodyard, 22, Newark, each was fined $200 and costs, sentenced to 10 days in jail and had his driver's license suspended, subject to compliance with state law. Judge Walter M. Shea later suspended $100 of the fine and seven days of the jail term of each. Tobin was arrested by the sheriff's department and Woodyard by city police.

Danny J. Harris, Lockbourne Air Force Base, was fined $50 and costs for entering uninclosed land with intent to steal. He was arrested on an affidavit signed by Paul Stout.

OTHER arrests by the sheriff's department were:

Dale V. Elliott, 21, Route 2, Wil-Hamsport; $25 and costs for reckless operation.

Erma Iles, 35, Logan St.; $25 and costs for failure to have assured clear distance.

Kenneth R. Rolan, 25, Idabelle, Okla.; $10 and costs for passing a red light.

Drivers arrested by the State Highway Patrol were:

Donald W. Honaker, 25, Cleveland; $30 and costs for speeding at 90 miles per hour.

Rufus E. Logan, 22, Hamilton, and Tracy Lee Pritchard, 20, Detroit, Mich.; each fined $15 and costs for speeding at 65 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

James L. Brewer, 44, Cleveland, $15 and costs for speeding at 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Richard E. Miller, 19, Ashville, and Lewis A. Antle, 62, Trimble, arrested by local police, each was fined $10 and costs. Miller was cited for speeding at 45 miles per hour in a 35 mile zone and Trimble for failure to yield the right of way.

Estate Split Judge Orders

Proceeds of $127,398.82 from a sheriff's sale of five tracts of the estate of the late Charles A. Bolender were ordered distributed this week by Common Pleas Judge William Ammer.

One half of the proceeds or $63,699.41 will be distributed to Bolender's widow, Mrs. Jeannette Bolender.

The remainder of the proceeds, $63,699.41, is to be distributed to the co-executors of the estate, Ralph Bolender, Route 2, Circleville, Nellie Morrison and Lillian Stevens, both of Columbus.

The real estate auctioned in the sheriff's sale, totaled more than 500 acres in Circleville, Pickaway, and Jackson Townships.

Best of Show Award Goes To Mrs. Kuhns

Circleville Art League Has Quality Exhibit In Court House Lobby

A harness racing picture by Mrs. Gene Kuhns won "Best of Show" in the Circleville Art League Exhibit which is on display at the Circleville Courthouse lobby. Mrs. Kuhns' award was a silver tray. F. C. Mitchell, Fine Arts Dept. of Ohio University was the judge.

"An exceptionally fine show" was the way the judge spoke of the exhibit. For that reason Prof. Mitchell said "it was a difficult show to judge." "No bad pictures in it," he added.

He told Art League members that to judge the pictures he was obliged to look for small flaws in their work.

Mrs. Kuhns' outstanding picture showed a harness race in its finishing lap. It is a picture of action and atmosphere. One spectator remarked that he could actually feel the dust of the race track that the horses were kicking up. Mrs. Kuhns had intended, she said, to create that feeling.

MRS. KUHN'S took a first award in the oil division. Her picture, "End of Day," is a typical Ohio scene of a barnyard with farm equipment framed by two trees.

Mrs. Eric Bell took the second prize in Oils with a picture, "Power Plant Road No. 2."

Miss Ruth Montelius won the third award with her oil painting "Stable Boy."

In the water color section Mrs. Ward Robinson's picture, "Where there is Peace" was first-place winner. It is a pond scene of quiet repose.

Mrs. Edwin Bach Jr. was winner of the second award. Her entry was entitled "Starry Night."

Taking a third in the water color division was Mrs. Robert Hutzelman on her entry, (a pair) "Study in Olive."

In the miscellaneous division, which includes both pastels and charcoals, Miss Ruth Montelius was first place winner. Her entry was "Arrangement with a Red Tea Pot." This was a still life in pastels.

Mrs. Robinson's "Chartreuse and Gray," also in pastels, won the second award for her.

"Iron Age Potato Planter" was the third-place winner, a Mrs. Hutzelman entry.

Prof. Mitchell was entertained at

170 Hear Traffic Safety Talk At Supervisor's Club Meet

One hundred seventy members and guests of the Supervisor's Club of the Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co. met last night at the EUB Service Center.

Gordon Jeffrey, director of the Ohio Department of Highway Safety, spoke on traffic safety problems. He called for more uniformity in traffic laws across the nation.

The Supervisor's Club is a company organization made up of executives and key men of the C & SO Electric Co.

The following delegates and alternates were also elected at the meeting to serve as county representatives to the Ohio Education Assembly:

Walter Haney, first delegate; Miss Dhel Renick, second delegate; Mrs. Jeannette Chilcote, first alternate; and Lawrence Fullen, second alternate.

The assembly will be held November 21-23 in Columbus.

dinner at the Pickaway Arms after he had judged the exhibit. Fourteen Art League members were present to dine with the judge.

AFTER DINNER the judge returned to the courthouse and was available to exhibitors who wished his criticism on their work.

Prof. Mitchell holds both a bachelor's and master's degree from Missouri University Fine Arts Dept. He has studied at Harvard, Columbia and Ohio State.

U.S. Spending Stampede Eyed

Business Leader Calls For More Efficiency

CINCINNATI (AP)—The president of the U.S. chamber of commerce said today Russia's Sputnik is not sufficient reason "to stampede the Defense Department into reviving every one of its pet projects that has been shelved."

Philip M. Talbot, a Washington businessman, added:

"Certain persons in high positions in Washington, including a number of members of Congress and unofficial spokesmen for the armed services, would have you believe that the economy drive in the past session of Congress has virtually scuttled our guided missile program. That, of course, is not true."

In a speech prepared for the National Tire Dealers and Retreaders Assn., Talbot said the major issue is not lack of funds.

"The basic problem," he went on, "is simply inadequate organization and inadequate management of the manpower and fiscal resources allotted for this purpose."

"The problem stems from the failure of top officials to eliminate the bitter, costly and dangerous competition among the various branches of the armed services for domination of the guided missile program."

TALBOT SAID nearly $3 billion is being spent on guided missiles in the current fiscal year. That, he added, amounts to a 1,200 per cent increase over the $250 million spent for the same purpose two years ago.

He said the armed forces should have all the money necessary for them to keep ahead of Russian technological advances.

"But, until and unless, top defense officials, with the backing of influential members of Congress, take the steps that are necessary to insure more effective utilization of the funds that are already being provided for research and development, our defense problem cannot be solved," he said.

Deaths AND FUNERALS

ORA A. GILMORE

Mrs. Ora A. Gilmore, 74, died yesterday at 7 p. m. in the home of Charles Fleming, Route 1, Mt. Sterling, following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Gilmore was born in West Virginia, a daughter of Martin Van Buren and Sophia Morgan Knight. She was a member of the D.A.R., Blue Star Mothers and the Methodist Church.

She is survived by a son, Virgil, Columbus, eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren; three brothers, L. R. Knight, Columbus, A. A. Knight, Fairmont, W. Va., and Edward Knight, California.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. in the Snyder Funeral Home, Mt. Sterling, by the Rev. J. D. Klein officiating. Burial will be in Mt. Sterling Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. today.

Former Resident Shot by Wife

Robert Lee Trone, 37, Columbus, former Circleville resident, was shot in the left side Tuesday when he attempted to break through a barricaded bedroom door to reach his wife.

Columbus police said the shooting was the result of an argument between Trone and his wife, Ruth, 30. The wounded man remained in serious condition yesterday in Mt. Carmel Hospital, Columbus.

Seaman, 21, Sentenced To Death for Slaying

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Seaman Jimmie Henderson, sentenced to death by a Navy general court-martial Tuesday, will be transferred to the Navy prison at Portsmouth, N. H., to await the results of an automatic appeal.

The 21-year-old sailor was convicted of the murder of Ens. Arthur Morris of Stow, Ohio, aboard the cargo vessel USS Uvalde May 28.

Henderson's execution would be the first carried out in peacetime since 1842.

State Liquor Chiefs Lose Allowances

Ohio Legal Officer's Opinion Nips Payments Made Board Members

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State liquor board members no longer will receive allowances for travel between their homes and Columbus. An opinion by Atty. Gen. William Saxbe to state Auditor James A. Rhodes cut off the allowances of long standing.

Ohio's Supreme Court in 1948 knocked out allowances for meals, lodging and incidentals in Columbus.

Saxbe's opinion said statute does not permit allowances for travel expenses from the respective residences of board members to the principal place of business, which is in Columbus. The ruling held that other actual and necessary expenses for travel are permissible.

Board members are Chairman Robert Koch of Van Wert, Miss Ester R. Hard of Fremont, James Donnelly of Cleveland and E. G. Schuessler of Columbus.

The full time jobs pay $6,000 annually. The chairman receives an additional $500 a year.

Rhodes estimated that allowances averaged $50 a month for out-of-town members traveling to Columbus where the board customarily meets to hear citations for liquor law violations and review appeals from permit suspensions and revocations.

The board also holds meetings in Cleveland, Cincinnati and Toledo and plans to hold sessions in the other division headquarters cities of Lima, Canton, Dayton and Portsmouth.

The Supreme Court decision nearly a decade ago came on a suit by Simon L. Leis of Cincinnati, former board member, against then state Auditor Joseph T. Ferguson.

Leis asked the court to require payment of his expense claim of $25.21 for railroad fare between Cincinnati and Columbus, lodging, meals, phone calls and cab fares while attending official business in the capital.

The unanimous ruling in a decision written by Judge Charles B. Zimmerman denied the request. The decision read:

"It can hardly be said with confidence that the phrase 'travel expenses' . . . includes expenditures for subsistence, lodging, telephone calls, local transportation, etc., made by one receiving an annual salary for his services after arriving at his destination for the transaction of the business in which he is regularly engaged on a full time basis . . ."

Zimmerman held that "statutes relating to fees and compensation of public officers must be strictly construed in favor of the government and such officers are entitled only to what is clearly given by law."

The attorney general's opinion, having the force of law pending a court test, followed ultimate refusal of the last Legislature to double the salaries of board members.

The Legislature, early in the session, granted big pay raises to various state officials and mem-

The World Today

By ED CREAGH
For James Marlow
WASHINGTON (AP)—In some ways Vice President Nixon seems more concerned over Sputnik than his boss does.

Portions of a speech Nixon made in San Francisco Tuesday night could even be construed as second-guessing President Eisenhower, not that Nixon would ever do such a thing on purpose.

What Nixon did do is warn against complacency — against brushing off the Soviet satellite as a mere scientific stunt.

Complacency is just what Eisenhower has been accused of by some critics. He didn't, as former Secretary of Defense Wilson did, call Sputnik "a nice scientific trick." He said it proves the Russians have a mighty powerful rocket.

But he also said last week that (A) while he wishes we knew more about missiles he is "not dissatisfied" with U.S. progress to date, and (B) he has given the scientists all the money they asked for and doesn't know what more he can do.

Nixon's words have a different ring: "If the free world is to survive we cannot rest on our past achievements or our present position of military superiority. . . . We must constantly push forward on all fronts."

There is a seeming difference, too, in the two men's evaluation of Sputnik as a propaganda weapon.

Eisenhower said last week he had been advised long ago that the Soviets would gain a political or psychological advantage if their satellite was first into space. He did not indicate great concern. He said he saw no reason why this consideration should cause the United States to get into a satellite race which might disrupt orderly research.

Nixon says the Russians will use their "scientific triumph" as propaganda ammunition in their effort to communicate underdeveloped areas. And if they succeed in taking over Asia and Africa, he says, the free world will have lost its fight against communism without firing a shot.

The vice president agrees with both Eisenhower and Wilson that the satellite itself does not put the Russians ahead of this country in military strength.

But Nixon goes on to add something the President didn't: "We have had a grim and timely reminder of a truth we must never overlook — that the Soviet Union has developed a scientific and industrial capacity of great magnitude."

There is no attempt here to suggest there is a split between the President and his lieutenant.

For one thing they were addressing different audiences. Eisenhower spoke to a news conference, apparently trying to bring a worldwide blaze of alarm and confusion under control. Nixon was telling a business group why defense spending might rule out a tax cut.

Also, the differences may be more in the way the two men express themselves than in what they are trying to say.

But on the face of it Nixon does show a greater degree of concern and urgency in going forward "on all fronts."

Prosecutor Target Of Hubcap Thieves

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP)—Municipal Court police prosecutor Earl Stephenson is known as a genial man. But thieves have also gotten the notion he's a soft touch and he wants an end to it.

First they stole all hubcaps off his car. Then they stole the car itself. Stephenson had to go out and buy a new one.

The thieves must have been watching. All the hubcaps are gone again.

Shift to State Trend Slow

New Joint Federal-State Action Committee is seeking support for a simple two-step beginning to a program to return some federal functions to the states. Whether anything can be achieved at the present time is problematical.

The committee's two initial proposals are:

1. Let states take over three presently aided programs — natural disaster relief, vocational education, and municipal waste treatment construction grants.
2. Transfer a $150 million annual federal tax source to the states so they will have revenue to finance these three programs. The tax source transfer recommended by the joint committee is that of crediting to the states for a five-year trial period 40 per cent of the federal tax collected on local telephone calls. The incongruity here is that states would be dependent on federal handouts.

But it would do no harm to give these three proposals a try. All three of the areas mentioned could certainly be construed as local responsibilities. There will be some arguments as to whether government should be performing these functions at all. But advocates of decentralization will be wise to ignore that question, now largely academic, and make a serious effort to prove that transferring these programs back to the local level will not result in crippling them.

It will be interesting to see whether those who vocally advocate less federal spending and less centralization in Washington, D. C., will swing behind this modest effort of the Joint Federal-State Action Committee. When they view the puny beginning that is proposed, they may decide to have nothing to do with it.

Queen Elizabeth; She Serves

By George Sokolsky

The arrival of the Queen in the United States on her first state visit to this country is an event which even Americans who are not inclined toward Great Britain will recognize as of outstanding significance. The British remain our closest allies despite the enormous energy that has been devoted by the enemies of both countries to tear them apart.

It is not enough that we need to make our dealings with Great Britain as smooth as two competing nations in the economic field can make them, we need also to continue the social and cultural relationships which bind us even more closely.

Elizabeth II appeals to the American mind not for the grandeur of her personality but for its simplicity. The family group is attractive. If tales of Philip's derelictions have called for some notice in our press, it has only made the Queen and her consort more human, more like me and thee.

It is in the nature of Americans to prefer the great to be simple, not because they believe in noblesse oblige but rather because "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights..."

The United States is not as Anglo-Saxon in population as is generally accepted. It may even be that demographically the Teutonic strain is the stronger, and the Italian and Slavic strains are constantly growing. However, our civilization is distinctively Anglo-Saxon, influencing perhaps more those who descend from the Eastern and Southern Europeans today than those who trace their ancestry back to the early settlers and who have, so often, taken their blessings here for granted, they being so accustomed to them.

Perhaps the Queen's visit may stimulate a renewal of interest in the British institutions which their nation inherited from her nation, institutions and ideas to which alone we must attribute our moral strength that has preserved us a nation.

Of course, Americans will understand that the Queen possesses no political authority; that as Queen of Great Britain or of Canada or in whatever capacity she serves each of the members of the Commonwealth of Nations, her position is moral and suasive.

The Queen of England does not rule; she reigns. And therein lies not only a tremendous constitutional difference but it explains why the institution of royalty continues in a country which is essentially republican. Rulers become politicians and they sway with the wind to keep themselves in office, often performing acts for which they hate themselves but which they rationalize as essential to keep their unspeakable opponents out of office.

The British royal family depends not upon votes nor upon power. Its sole claim upon the people is their love and respect. To be a queen without power, to have the appearance of authority and yet to assume nothing but responsibility is a role that Elizabeth I would not have understood, nor would Victoria have understood it. But it has become the characteristic of the House of Windsor that this should be so and the British people, Tory or socialist, wish it to be so. There is little realistic opposition to the monarchy in Great Britain.

The royal family sets the social and moral pace for the nation. If as young people, royalty is gay, it is also devoted and performs its duties as readily and constantly as its forebears did. It fits the age that the monarch and her family should be young, for Great Britain will either be resurrected in the second half of the 20th Century or it will become fossilized by cataclysmic events. It is the role of youth to be gay and to fight fierce battles with laughter and cheer.

So we read of the Queen and Philip, of Margaret and Charles and Anne and it all seems as though royalty may have a touch of the plebeian, in an era when most royalty has become dispossessed and the proletariat has taken over with all the ugliness of those who are not accustomed to the roles they play. At any rate, the Queen of England can walk the streets of any British city unguarded and the people will cheer. And Prince Charles can go to a commoner's school and play with other boys his own age, as a boy should. Apparently, the House of Windsor has discovered the soul of kingship which is in the phrase, "I serve."

Diabetics Have Problems

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

We all know that diabetes is a big problem. Somewhere between 1,000,000 and 3,000,000 Americans have the disease. For every four known cases, there may be three or more diabetes victims who are unaware they have the disease.

Aside from the need for insulin and special diets, there are other problems associated with diabetes which few persons realize.

For one thing, diagnosing the disease frequently presents a problem. One reason why there are so many unreported cases is that diabetes is a great imitator.

Puzzling symptoms may lead the victim to suspect his trouble is only a case of indigestion. Pain and uneasiness following meals is a frequent symptom of diabetes which is blamed simply on indigestion.

Sometimes an acute case of diabetes provides symptoms similar to acute appendicitis. This is a problem for the doctor, one which he must solve in a hurry.

Administration of insulin also may be a problem. Some persons are allergic to insulin. Yet if they have diabetes, they vitally need it. Generally, any reaction at the site of the injection will disappear in a few weeks. If the allergic reaction is severe, a different brand of insulin may be tried.

If that doesn't halt the allergy, the doctor might have to conduct a desensitization series similar to that used for other allergens. Beginning with a diluted solution, the physician gradually administers a series of graded doses until a resistance to the allergic reaction is built up.

All diabetes problems are not necessarily physical troubles. It's vitaly important for a diabetic to avoid needless emotional crises.

To help him make a good adjustment to his ailment, it's usually advisable for him to establish new habits of living early in the disease.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

GEORGE HOUESHEL, of York, Pa., who admits to being 76 years young, writes, "Double-barreled stories are the ones I like best. Take the boy, for instance, who boasted, 'My brother's so tall that if he gets his feet wet on Monday, he doesn't get a cold in the head till Friday.' That's nothing," pooh-poohed his friend. 'My brother's so tall he has to stand on top of a 12-foot ladder to comb his hair.' 'Why doesn't he put the mirror down lower?' asked the first boy. 'He can't do that,' explained the second. 'It would mean he had no use for the ladder.'"

Tighter Laws Against Union Evils Urged

Ohio Commerce Group Hears Call To Stamp Out 'Gangsterism'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A broad legislative program to stamp out "gangsterism" and "corruption," in the labor movement was outlined here today by U. S. Sen. Carl T. Curtis (R-Neb.).

In a speech prepared for delivery at the 64th annual meeting of the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, Curtis, a member of the McClellan committee investigating labor, called for support of a program to "protect the rank and file of the men and women who work, and the employers, and the general public, from those practices and those individuals that dominate, plunder, disrupt and destroy."

Curtis proposed a seven-point program:

"First, there must be legislation enacted requiring a thorough accounting of union dues and welfare funds."

"Secondly, there must be legislation that will assure a greater control of unions by union members. . . voting methods, nominations and elections of officers and delegates, and methods of holding conventions should be in the hands of the rank and file of the members and not governed from the top down."

"Third, we should outlaw the practice of exerting pressure on neutral businesses where there is no labor dispute. This is commonly called the secondary boycott. . . and it often amounts to economic blackmail."

"Fourth, a more effective method of preventing the use of union funds for political purposes such as making political contributions, providing research, furnishing manpower, and the use of publications to support candidates, parties and issues, oftentimes contrary to the views of the individual members."

"Fifth, anti-trust and anti-monopoly laws have been enacted to protect the public from the abuses that come from the concentration of economic power. . . therefore legal restraints should be imposed against the concentration of union power by groups of unions when that power becomes a threat to the welfare of the country."

"Sixth, the responsibilities for maintaining law and order and for the prosecution for assaults, bombings and like offenses should remain the responsibility of the state and local governments. However, the federal government should step in when hoodlums are transported across state lines for the purpose of committing violence."

"And seventh, union membership should be voluntary and not compulsory. . . no American citizen should be required to belong to any organization in order to secure or hold his job."

Curtis said the McClellan committee will file an interim report on its findings before Jan. 1. Hearings will continue through 1958, he said. He said he hopes that out of them "sound and fair legislation will be enacted."

In another prepared talk, Dr. C. J. Botte, an economic analyst for the Chamber of Commerce, predicted Ohio's "spectacular" growth will continue.

Ohio leads the nation in the production of durable goods, will probably become the nation's no. 1 producer of primary metals within 10 years, and is a challenger in a number of other commodities, he said.

S. B. McGavran, a budget analyst for the Chamber, said Ohio's policy of holding appropriations while estimated revenues, and basing the estimates on past collections, is a firm policy and has resulted in the state's economic growth.

He cautioned against overspending or misusing revenues, particularly in capital improvements such as school and highways, however, explaining that such misuses would ultimately delay further improvements.

John E. Senn, a tax law analyst for the Chamber, told delegates that Ohio has a dependable tax structure "that cannot easily be mutilated at the whim or caprice of irresponsible leadership at

North Ohio Sees Sputnik 2nd Day

CLEVELAND (AP)—The third-stage rocket that boosted Russia's Sputnik into its orbit and remained to become a second satellite was observed over northern Ohio Tuesday for the second consecutive day.

Scientists at Warner & Swasey Observatory said the rocket was sighted from the Nassau Astro-nomical Station of Case Institute of Technology 30 miles east of Cleveland from 6:05 to 6:07 a. m. EST, travelling from a little west of north to the southeast.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson Jr., who live near Alliance, Ohio, reported seeing the rocket at 6:05 a. m. They said it came out of the north, passed the handle of the Big Dipper and quickly faded from sight in the southeast. They said it looked "like a flat star" and was extremely bright.

Yale Aide Named Girls School Head

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A 35-year-old assistant dean at Yale University comes back Monday as headmaster of the first school he attended.

Arleigh D. Richardson III, assistant dean of freshmen at Yale, takes over at the Columbus School for Girls.

Richardson attended kindergarten at the girl's school some 30 years ago.

O'Neill Aide Sure Chief Running Again

CLEVELAND (AP)—Alvin I. Krenzler, who managed Gov. C. William O'Neill's campaign in 1956, is convinced the governor will run again. "In the next campaign, Gov. O'Neill is going to have to list his accomplishments and stand on that record," Krenzler told the Greater Cleveland Young Republicans.

the state or the local government level."

A less optimistic note was sounded by Dr. Arch D. Schultz, director of research for the Chamber. He told the group, "so far as economic facts are concerned, there is not the slightest bit of admissible evidence to suggest that Ohio will be the No. 1 industrial state as soon as 1970. Business and political leadership should face this as a fact."

Before Ohio could overtake New York as the country's top productive state, he said, it would need a 197 per cent increase in population by 1970 and would require more than a 20 million population. According to a U. S. Commerce Department report, he said, Ohio will only have between 12 and 13 million population in 1970.

Other talks on different aspects of the state's economy were delivered by William B. Papier of the Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation; Dr. Miles J. Martin of General Electric Co. and E. Eugene Fournace of Canton, an officer of Ohio Power Co.

"Mary Hawthorth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I believe wholeheartedly that all teen-agers are capable of loving other teen-agers and that in their teen-age way they experience the same emotions of love that mature adults experience.

Because I believe this, I can write to you, an adult, for advice. My question is: How can one learn to forget somebody with whom they have been in love? Can you tell me in detail how to overcome the almost lethargic mood in which I find myself?

How can I convince myself for my own good, that the other person never will come back? How can I make myself have a good time doing the usual things, without always remembering the broken love affair?

Your answer may provide guidance to numerous teen-agers in the same predicament.

D.D. DEAR D.D.: I doubt that we should try to forget the people whom we have loved, even if they move out of our lives, rejecting us. If we were to try to forget these people, who have been so greatly important to us, it would be comparable to trying to cut away, or throw away, part of ourselves, I think.

Perhaps the best we can do, to avoid crippling, is to digest the pain or sorrow that is our legacy from the broken relationship—by candidly facing the fact that we've had a great loss; or that we have been robbed of a companion precious to us. And that there simply isn't anything we can do about our distress, except bear it, a day at a time, while going ahead into more life.

Certain comments in your letter indicate that you are suffering from emotional depression; but perhaps only a mild attack. Chief symptoms of emotional depression are (1) obsessive preoccupation with memories of the past—a supposedly happier past, that presumably never can be recaptured or surpassed; and (2) a sense of heaviness, hopelessness or dreariness. Or, as you say, lethargy.

Now, as for how to pull out of emotional depression, I believe the first step is to establish a beachhead of real communication with some trustworthy person.

Cincinnati Burglar Leaves 'Calling Card'

CINCINNATI (AP)—Elliott Hellmud, 48, is in jail in nearby St. Bernard today because his "calling card" was found after a $177 burglary at his former place of work—Factory Glass Co. He was in such a hurry to get away, police said, he left behind a brown paper bag holding a sandwich, tobacco and his spectacles. Employees said he always came to work with the brown bag — containing the same items.

who can talk understandingly with you about your heartache.

This kind of exchange helps to revive self-esteem, which usually takes a beating, in a broken affair. It is this other person's listening interest that builds you up, in your own estimation—since it provides assurance that you are liked and accepted, after all, by someone whom YOU respect, even though your "teen" love turned you down.

Also this experience of sharing provides you practice in moving out again, gradually, towards people — whom you've begun to distrust, in your depressed mood. You are in a shock state, really, in the wake of busted romance; and the therapeutic relationship, which I am describing, affords emotional exercise, in coming back to normal.

But where is the curative listener? Well, that's always the $64 question. A good psychologist, or a family relations counselor, might fill the bill. Or possibly your pastor or Sunday School teacher, if either has time to give. Sometimes a father or mother will prove surprisingly savvy and helpful, in a case of this kind, if you give them a chance to cooperate.

M.H. Mary Hawthorth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write to her in care of this newspaper.

Government Plant Attracts No Bidders

PAINESVILLE (AP)—No acceptable bids for purchase of the government's magnesium plant here were received by the deadline, and the government now hopes to negotiate a sale.

The plant cost $16 million when it was built before World War II. It produced magnesium also during the Korean conflict, and has been mothballed since 1953.

Harry Guardino Wins Laurels

Flood of Offers Finally Comes In

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—If Harry Guardino wears a satisfied look over his co-star billing with Cary Grant and Sophia Loren, it's understandable.

The guy made it the hard way — up from washing dishes in Hollywood hash houses and filling in waits for acting jobs by shipping out as a seaman. He even claims he went without eating for four days when jobs were scarce.

Harry is a good-looking Brooklyn boy of 31 who is starting with the high-powered company in "Houseboat."

He started acting when he was a kid in Brooklyn. He joined a group and continued his interest in high school. Then came the war. He joined the Navy and when he returned, he found the dramatic school he wanted to enter was crowded. So he took a test as a merchant seaman, passed with flying colors and shipped out.

During one of his stretches on the beach, he enrolled in New York's Dramatic Workshop. He later came to Hollywood, got a job washing dishes in a Vine Street coffee joint.

He got one picture job — in a Tony Curtis movie. A week later, he was working in a Beverly Hills gas station.

At one point, Harry decided to toss in the towel. He began teaching acting technique.

Then his onetime fellow student, Michael Gazzo, wired that his play had been accepted and he might have a part for Harry. Harry was assigned to understudy Ben Gazzara in "Hatful of Rain." But he took over Tony Franciosa's role later in the Broadway run and on the road.

The result: A flood of offers.

Negro Woman Attorney Fascinated by Federal Job

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Cora M. Brown, young Detroit Negro attorney who is the newest woman appointee to an important government post and one of the few of her race to reach such status, says she's "fascinated" to be a part of the federal government.

The new special associate of the general counsel of the U. S. Post-office Department served two terms in the Michigan Senate (1952-56), and for the past 10 years has been active in community work and politics in Detroit.

An "Eisenhower Democrat," she ran for Congress in 1956, but was defeated by Rep. Thaddeus Machrowicz, also a Democrat.

"I never dreamed of the magnitude of the federal government's departments like the Postoffice," she told me shortly after her arrival here. "Even with a bird's eye view, it's a big operation and offers a tremendous opportunity, as well as great responsibility."

Right now, Miss Brown is spending all her time learning the ropes of her office which includes research and recommendations on cases involving violations of postal regulations on obscene literature, frauds in advertising matter sent through the mails, and actions against the postal service.

Born in Bessemer, Ala., Miss Brown attended Fiske College in Nashville, Tenn., and after working with various welfare agencies for 10 years, entered Wayne University in Detroit and was graduated.

Work Is Started On Erie Thruway

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Construction has begun on the 47 million dollar Erie Thruway, linking Ohio and New York.

Construction crews moved in to start work after Gov. Leader turned the first spadeful of dirt on the 46½-mile, four-lane superhighway Tuesday.

Connecting with the New York Thruway eight miles west of Ripley, N. Y., the new road will curve south of Erie and run to the Ohio line eight miles southeast of Lakeville, Ohio.

Roundtown Gardeners Hold Workshop Monday

Mrs. Pontius Talks On Dried Materials

The Roundtown Garden Club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Robert Younkin, in South Bloomfield, with Mrs. James Crabtree as Co-Hothead.

After a short business session, during which the club yearbooks were passed out, and the Pumpkin Show flower show was discussed, the members went to the basement where a workshop was conducted.

Each member brought her own containers, and dried materials, with which to make her own arrangements. Many beautiful arrangements were made under the capable direction of Mrs. Turney Pontius.

Mrs. Pontius showed several specimens of dried material. One unusual piece was a corn leaf which had been treated with glycerin. She also had poke berries, beech leaves, corn tassels, pussy willow, and several other items, many which had been treated with glycerin.

She outlined the procedure for treating plants and glycerin and showed how glycerin would keep the material from shedding.

She also pointed out that she preferred putty to a needlepoint for making dried arrangements, because the plant material would stay where she wanted it better than with a needlepoint. As a container she brought a plate and a lid, which were painted bronze. She set the plate on the lid and showed the members what a beautiful contrast the colors of the dried material were against the bronze of the plate.

A social hour followed after the workshop, during which refreshments were served.

Atlanta Home Demonstration Club Meets

The Atlanta Home Demonstration Group held its first meeting of the new season in the school with a cooperative luncheon recently.

The table was centered with an arrangement in a wooden bowl. Apples, hickory nuts and a branch of hickory were the materials used in an old wooden bowl. The table cloth was made of feed sacks which had been dyed in various fall blends.

Calendars for the year were planned at the business session at which Mrs. Jacob Justice, president was in charge. She named Mrs. Charles W. Mill safety leader. The group plan to purchase pins for new officers.

A discussion "Know Your County Government" was held. Plans were made to go into the subject more deeply at meetings which will follow.

A safety article, "The Day Before Graduation" was read by Mrs. Mills.

Mrs. Leora Sayre, Home Demonstration agent conducted several contests, "Kitchen Sense".

Family Dinner Honors Woman On 75th Birthday

There were 19 great grandchildren present for the dinner party given in honor of Mrs. Grace Fowler, Chillicothe, at the home of Mrs. Raymond Lightfoot, Dunmore Road, Sunday. The affair was in celebration of Mrs. Fowler's 75th birthday anniversary.

Guests included Mrs. Richard Devore, Mr. and Mrs. William Cummins, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Watson, Mrs. Clara Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Creed Ward, all of Ashville; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ward, Pataskala; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith, Circleville.

Sigma Phi Gamma Has Pledge Tea

The Kappa Alpha Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held a preferential tea for pledges Sunday afternoon at Wardell Party Home, Mrs. Leory Slusser vice-president was in charge of the affair.

Yellow rose corsages were presented to the three pledges as well as to Mrs. Leora Sayre Chapter sponsor.

Presiding at the tea table which was centered with yellow roses were Mrs. Sayre and Mrs. Olen Black.

Pledges were Miss Kathleen Platt, Mrs. Bobby Maxey and Mrs. James Small.

Guests were Mrs. Ben McDonald, Evansville, Ind. and Mrs. Dominic Giovannazzo.

Others attending the function were: Mrs. Reber Bell, Mrs. Lloyd Cox, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Miss Amy Miga, Mrs. Richard Robbins, Mrs. Robert Russell, Mrs. Howard Snook and Mrs. William Sprout.

AP Guesspert Tries Again To Pick Winners

While Trying To Cut Cigaret Use, Guesser Nervously Eyes Games

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK (AP) — Picking the weekly football winners always has been a four-pack job, but now the doctor says only six cigarettes a day . . . so nervously . . . Michigan State over Purdue: The Spartans were at their 1957 best against Michigan. Purdue has been beaten three times but isn't a poor team.

Oklahoma over Kansas: If they all were this easy, you could give up smoking completely.

Texas A&M over Texas Christian: John Crow is one of the country's better backs . . . and he plays for Texas A&M.

Minnesota over Illinois: There's just a faint hint of an upset here, especially if the Illini stop fumbling. Minnesota power to prevail over Illinois speed and passes.

Iowa over Wisconsin: Two of the Big Ten's unbeaten goliaths tangle but it is the Hawkeyes' homecoming. Randy Duncan's passing to decide.

Oregon State over UCLA: Oregon State has beaten UCLA only once since 1948 and that was last year. The trend has been reversed and now the defending Coast champions, with Joe Francis doing the heavy, triumph for a second straight year.

Auburn over Georgia Tech: It is close ones such as this that make just a smidgin' of nicotine necessary.

Arkansas over Texas: Just one more drag, please. That Walt Fondren of Texas can frighten anyone.

North Carolina over Maryland: Queen Elizabeth will watch this game. She will wonder what it's all about. So will Maryland.

Navy over Georgia: The first of the season's bowl games. This one is the Oyster Bowl at Norfolk and Georgia will discover that Navy has a real pearl in Ned Oldham.

Army over Pittsburgh: Yes, doctor, this puff was needed. As close as they come. The mythical Eastern title could be decided with the home field giving the Cadets the edge.

Skippping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY

West Virginia over George Washington.

SATURDAY

EAST: Boston College over Villanova, Penn over Brown, Yale over Cornell, Harvard over Columbia, Holy Cross over Dartmouth, Penn State over Vanderbilt, Princeton over Colgate, Rutgers over Lehigh.

MIDWEST: Iowa over Wisconsin, Cincinnati over Marquette, Missouri over Iowa State, Colorado over Kansas State, Michigan over Northwestern, Syracuse over Nebraska, Ohio State over Indiana, Tulsa over North Texas State, Drake over Colorado State U.

SOUTH: Mississippi over Tulane, Miami over N. C. State, Tennessee over Alabama, The Citadel over Richmond, Davidson over West Virginia Tech, Florida State over Abilene Christian, Florida over Mississippi State, Virginia Tech over Virginia, Furman over Wofford, Kentucky over LSU.

SOUTHWEST: Hardin Simmons over Wichita, Houston over Oklahoma State, Rice over Southern Methodist, Baylor over Texas Tech.

FAR WEST: Arizona over New Mexico, Southern California over California, Utah over Denver, College of Pacific over Idaho, Utah State over Montana, Washington State over Oregon, Washington State over Stanford, Wyoming over Brigham Young.

(Last week's score: 43 correct, 12 wrong . . . 778. Season's figures: 139-39-779).

Bucks Polishing Aerial Defenses

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State football coach Woody Hayes, clearly expecting Indiana to employ an aerial attack against the Buckeyes Saturday, put his men through an afternoon of pass defense at Tuesday's practice.

In three games this season, the Hoosiers ran up 250 of their 301 net yards, and scored their lone touchdown, on pass plays.

Buckeye quarterback Tom Crawford, passing in the style of Indiana's Tommy McDonald, broke through the first team's pass defense six times in a row, prompting Hayes to mutter: "Too many completions, too many."

Tribe Engineers San Diego Swap

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians announced Monday night they were sending pitchers John Gray and Bob Alexander to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League in exchange for pitcher Pete Mesa, catcher Allen Jones and outfielder Dave Mann.

Gray was operated on last month for bone chips in his right elbow. The 30-year-old right-hander came to the Indians from San Diego last July and compiled a 13-3 record.

Circleville's grid Tigers are busy this week prepping for an invasion by Columbus Holy Rosary Friday night.

The Rosary gridders will roll into town with a record of two wins, two losses and one tie. The

Experts Say Greenberg To Get Ax Today

CLEVELAND (AP) — Sports writers for this city's three daily newspapers think it likely that Hank Greenberg will be fired today as general manager of the Cleveland Indians.

The club's 13 directors vote today on whether to retain the one-time home run king, who has bossed the Indians for eight years.

The leanest year was the season just completed. The Indians lost games, fans and money amid rumors and denials that the franchise would be moved.

A majority vote of the 13 directors — not a stock majority — will settle the issue.

Greenberg is a director himself. He owns a fifth of the stock, but has only one vote in 13 on his own job. He says he intends to fight to keep it.

But the experts believe Greenberg must go — for much the same reason that Greenberg fired field manager Kerby Farrell at the end of the 1957 disaster. Somebody must be the goat.

Flu Cancels Reserve Tilt

Circleville's reserve football game scheduled with Chillicothe yesterday was postponed due to flu.

The contest was slated on the Chillicothe gridiron. However, both schools agreed to cancel the game because several key players were ill.

The battle probably will be rescheduled at a later date.

Braves, Yankees Divide Record World Series Loot

NEW YORK (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves and New York Yankees counted their ends of the richest World Series ever today.

Yankee pitcher Sal Maglie, who tried to work both sides of the street, was satisfied with one cut of the money pie instead of the two he almost landed.

The 30 Braves voted a full series share were wealthier by $8,924.36 for winning the New York Yankees 4-3 in the series. It was the third highest stake in 54 years of series play.

Thirty-three Yankees got $5,606.06 portions, fourth highest for losers.

Commissioner Ford Frick released the figures. He also squashed Maglie's opportunity to collect from both sides.

The Yankees voted the Niagara Falls money pitcher a $2,803.03 share for the month he spent with them after he was traded from the National League Brooklyn Dodgers Sept. 1.

The Dodgers consigned a $1,507.19 third-place pot to The Barber, who would have earned $4,310.22 in a series in which he was ineligible to play.

But Frick stepped in. An aide said he "believes that no man should be allowed a cut from both leagues. So he decided that Maglie would have to take the allotment from the team with which he finished the season, in this case the Yankees."

The Braves voted $6,693.27 three-quarter shares to Bob Hazle and Nippy Jones, who joined the team late in the season.

They allotted three one-third shares and $7,500 to be split among bat boys, groundkeepers and part-season players.

The Yankees voted a full share to Bill Dickey, coach who was out

Bow Hunters' Deer Season Now in Swing

Deer season for archers officially got underway yesterday in Ohio.

According to Robert Wolf, secretary of the Pickaway County Farmers and Sportsmen's Assn. deer permits have gone on sale at several local business establishments. The licenses cost $5.25.

Bow and arrow enthusiasts will be allowed to hunt deer until December 31. Each hunter will be allowed only one deer. Gun season this year will run from December 11-14 inclusive.

Archers may hunt deer from daylight to dark except December 11-14 which lists hunting hours from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

DUCK season here opens Friday. Nimrods are reminded that hunting hours are a half-hour before sunrise until a half-hour before sunset.

Federal duck stamps, required along with state hunting licenses, will go on sale at the local post-office. Cost is $2.

all season because of illness. They also passed out two half shares, two quarter shares and $3,250 to bat boys and groundkeepers.

The 394,712 spectators at seven games contributed $2,806,538.24. Attendance and gate receipts were records. The players share the proceeds of the first four games.

The St. Louis Cards second-place team in the National League earned full shares of $1,636.22. The Chicago White Sox, American League runners-up earned $1,521.39 per full share.

The Boston Red Sox shares amounted to $1,004.33. The fourth-place Cincinnati Redlegs and Detroit Tigers received $541.25 and $466.67, respectively.

Biggest share of all went to a nonpro. Uncle Sam hauled away a tax bite of $247,738.96. He'll get another installment when Yankees and Braves players ante up next April 15.

Here Are More News Briefs From Midwest Grid Camps

CHICAGO (AP)—Midwest Football Briefs:

Wisconsin — Not taking any chances, Coach Milt Bruhn sent his undefeated Badgers through an unusually heavy Monday drill. Emphasis was placed against Iowa plays. Guard Bill Gehler and end Dave Kocourek might miss the Iowa game because of injuries.

Iowa—Coach Forest Evashevski showed concern over Iowa's three fumbles and four pass interceptions in the 47-7 victory over Indiana. Fullback John Nocera has a bruised hip and is a doubtful starter against Wisconsin.

Minnesota—The Gophers tested their crimples in hopes of getting them to take the field against Illinois. Halfback Bob Schultz, end Perry Gehring and halfback Dave Lindblom participated in the drill. All three missed the Northwestern game.

Illinois — Halfbacks Dale Smith and Bob Mitchell were demoted by Coach Ray Eliot to the second team. Taking over the first team assignments were Don Grothe and sophomore Doug Wallace. Also boosted to the first team was tackle Don Yeazel.

Ohio State—Coach Woody Hayes announced that senior Don Sutherland has earned a starting berth at right halfback replacing Dick LeBeau. The Bucks meet Indiana Saturday.

Indiana—It's back to fundamentals for Indiana's Hoosiers after three straight losses. Coach Bob Hicks put the team through an intense drill and said "We're just not blocking and tackling."

Michigan State — The Spartans aren't taking the Purdue game Saturday lightly. "It was Purdue that snapped our 28-game winning streak back in 1953 with a 6-0 upset," said Coach Duffy Daugherty. Last year MSU defeated Purdue 12-9.

Purdue — Starting right tackle Frank Hoffman is lost for the season. Hoffman underwent surgery for an injured knee suffered in the Wisconsin game. The Boilermakers worked on their passing attack.

Michigan—Fullback John Herrmstein is not expected to play against Northwestern. Herrmstein re-injured his ankle against Michigan State and was on crutches.

Northwestern—Sophomore Bert Fredrick might get the starting quarterback assignment against Michigan. Coach Ara Parseghian indicated Frederick is no worse than sophomores Chip Holcomb and John Talley on offense and is better on defense.

Notre Dame — The Irish were given two days respite from practice following their 23-21 victory over Army. Notre Dame has an open date Saturday and meets Pitt the following week.

Marquette—Halfback Jim Webster might be able to play against Cincinnati this week. Webster, sidelined since the first game of the season with a bad ankle, will work out but avoid contact.

Spartans Lead All Teams on Grid Offense

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Michigan State is backing its standing as the country's No. 1 football team by leading the major colleges in total offense and rushing, NCAA figures show.

State, number one in the Associated Press weekly poll, also stands fifth among colleges in passing offense and ranks third behind two other Big Ten schools in scoring average.

Undeclared Michigan State has averaged 506 yards in each of three games on the ground and in the air. Iowa (497.3) and Wisconsin (442.7) follow in a near Big Ten monopoly.

The Spartans, paced by Walt Kowalczyk, gained 1,023 yards in three games for a leading 341-yards-per-game mark. Next in line is Wisconsin (965 for 331.7).

Scoring, Michigan State takes a back seat to Iowa (137 points, 45.7 average) and Wisconsin (128, 42.7). State is tied for third with Minnesota, each with a 36-point average. The Hawks and Badgers meet Saturday in Iowa City.

Utah is the best passing college

DeMarco Aiming At Welter Title

BOSTON (AP) — Tony De Marco, rounding into the best condition of his career, served notice today that he considers himself the world's No. 1 welterweight — and will fight anyone to prove it.
"I intend to get the title and nobody's going to stop me," the Boston slugger said. "I fight when and where my managers say, but I'm ready for anyone."
De Marco shrugged off the storm caused by the action of the Massachusetts Boxing Commission in granting title recognition to the winner of his bout with Virgil Atkins Oct. 29 in Boston.

with a per game yardage of 202.5 on 56 completions in 92 tries. Michigan State and Iowa are the most efficient passers. The Hawks racked up 11 yards for every completed pass, the Spartans .621 average (38 for 58) is the best.

Gene Fullmer, who held the mid-dleweight title for four months, began boxing at the age of eight.

The University of Texas team mascot is a Longhorn steer named "Bevo."

Patrol Show's Nerve Center

Keeps Radio Contract With Roving Cars

The Ohio State Highway Patrol is well-represented at the 1957 Pumpkin Show.

A trailer complete with a radio hookup and public address system was moved into position yesterday at the southwest corner of Court and Main Sts.

According to State Patrolman Gene Miller the mobile unit is manned by local Patrol Auxiliary members.

The radio, PA system, plus a telephone hookup will allow the trailer to help act as a nerve center for Pumpkin Show activity. Radio contact will be maintained with all patrol cars working this area.

THE men working at the public address also will help handle the usual overflow of lost children, confused adults and missing articles.

The trailer has been here for several shows during the past few years. It has proved to be a help in keeping show activity going at a regular pace.

The trailer also presents a display of traffic laws and regulations plus interesting information on highway safety measures. The literature will be available to all spectators.

Another feature is a window display created by the local auxiliary in conjunction with the Ohio Department of Highway Safety. The display is at Mac's Goodyear store on E. Main St.

Pickaway PTO To Sponsor Member Drive

The first school year meeting of the Pickaway Twp. Parent Teacher Organization was held in the Pickaway School. Mrs. Robert Young presided.

It was decided that the membership drive is to be sponsored by the grade rooms. The sixth grade was awarded a prize for having the largest number of parents present.

Continuation of the milk program for the present school year was voted.

School superintendent Alfred Gabriel introduced school employees and teachers and discussed school policies.

A 4-H achievement program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Leora Sayre, Mrs. Frank Graves, Pete Smith, O. L. Hockman, Miss Marilyn Jacobs, and Kenneth Jacobs.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Luther List and her committee.

Four Receive K of P Rank

Four candidates received rank of Esquire Monday night at the local Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias.

The rank was conferred on Willard England, Donald Strawser, Michael Davis and Paul Smallwood. Initiation ceremonies were conducted following a short business meeting.

Three of the candidates are scheduled to receive rank of Knight Monday night at the local lodge hall. All members are urged to attend.

The initiation ceremonies are under the direction of Marvin Cook. Lunch was served following Monday night's program. Members of the lunch committee were Loring Davis, Allen Ankrom and Tom Strawser. Next week's committee will be headed by Ernest Young, Robert Mills and Nolan Sims.

16 Marines Appeal To Ike in Trial

TOKOSUKA, Japan (AP)—Sixteen U. S. Marines facing trial on charges of abusing Navy prisoners have appealed for a reinvestigation of their case to President Eisenhower and an ex-Marine congressman.

In the letters to Eisenhower and Rep. James P. S. Devereux (R-MD), the 16 Marines claimed they were only doing their duty as brig guards and denied any brutality.

Baby Parade Scheduled For Friday

One of the most popular events in the whole Pumpkin Show is the Baby Parade scheduled for 2 p. m. Friday. There are 18 classes in which mothers may enter their pretty little moppets.

Babies under one year of age may be entered. Babies between 1 and 2 will make another class and babies between 2 and 3 will form still another class.

Boys and girls will be judged separately. There are classes for twins up to 3 years old; a class for the best costume outfit, boy or girl up to 10 years old; a class for the best decorated doll buggy or small float, girl or boy up to 10 years in charge; a class for the prettiest and most artistically decorated baby-buggy only to be considered and a class for the prettiest and most artistically baby stroller, stroller only to be considered. The Child Study Club will direct the Baby Parade.

Mrs. Charles Kirkpatrick is the chairman in charge. Her assistants are: Mrs. William Cook, Mrs. Carl Purcell, Mrs. Ned Dresbach, Mrs. Henry Helwagen and Mrs. Richard Funk.

The Baby Parade will form on E. Main St. between Pickaway and Washington Sts.

Dietrich Hurt In Truck Mishap

William Dietrich, S. Court St., is reported in good condition after receiving injuries in a truck collision near St. Clairsville Monday.

Dietrich reportedly suffered fractures of the arm, shoulder and rib and lacerations of the face. He is being treated in St. Clairsville Hospital.

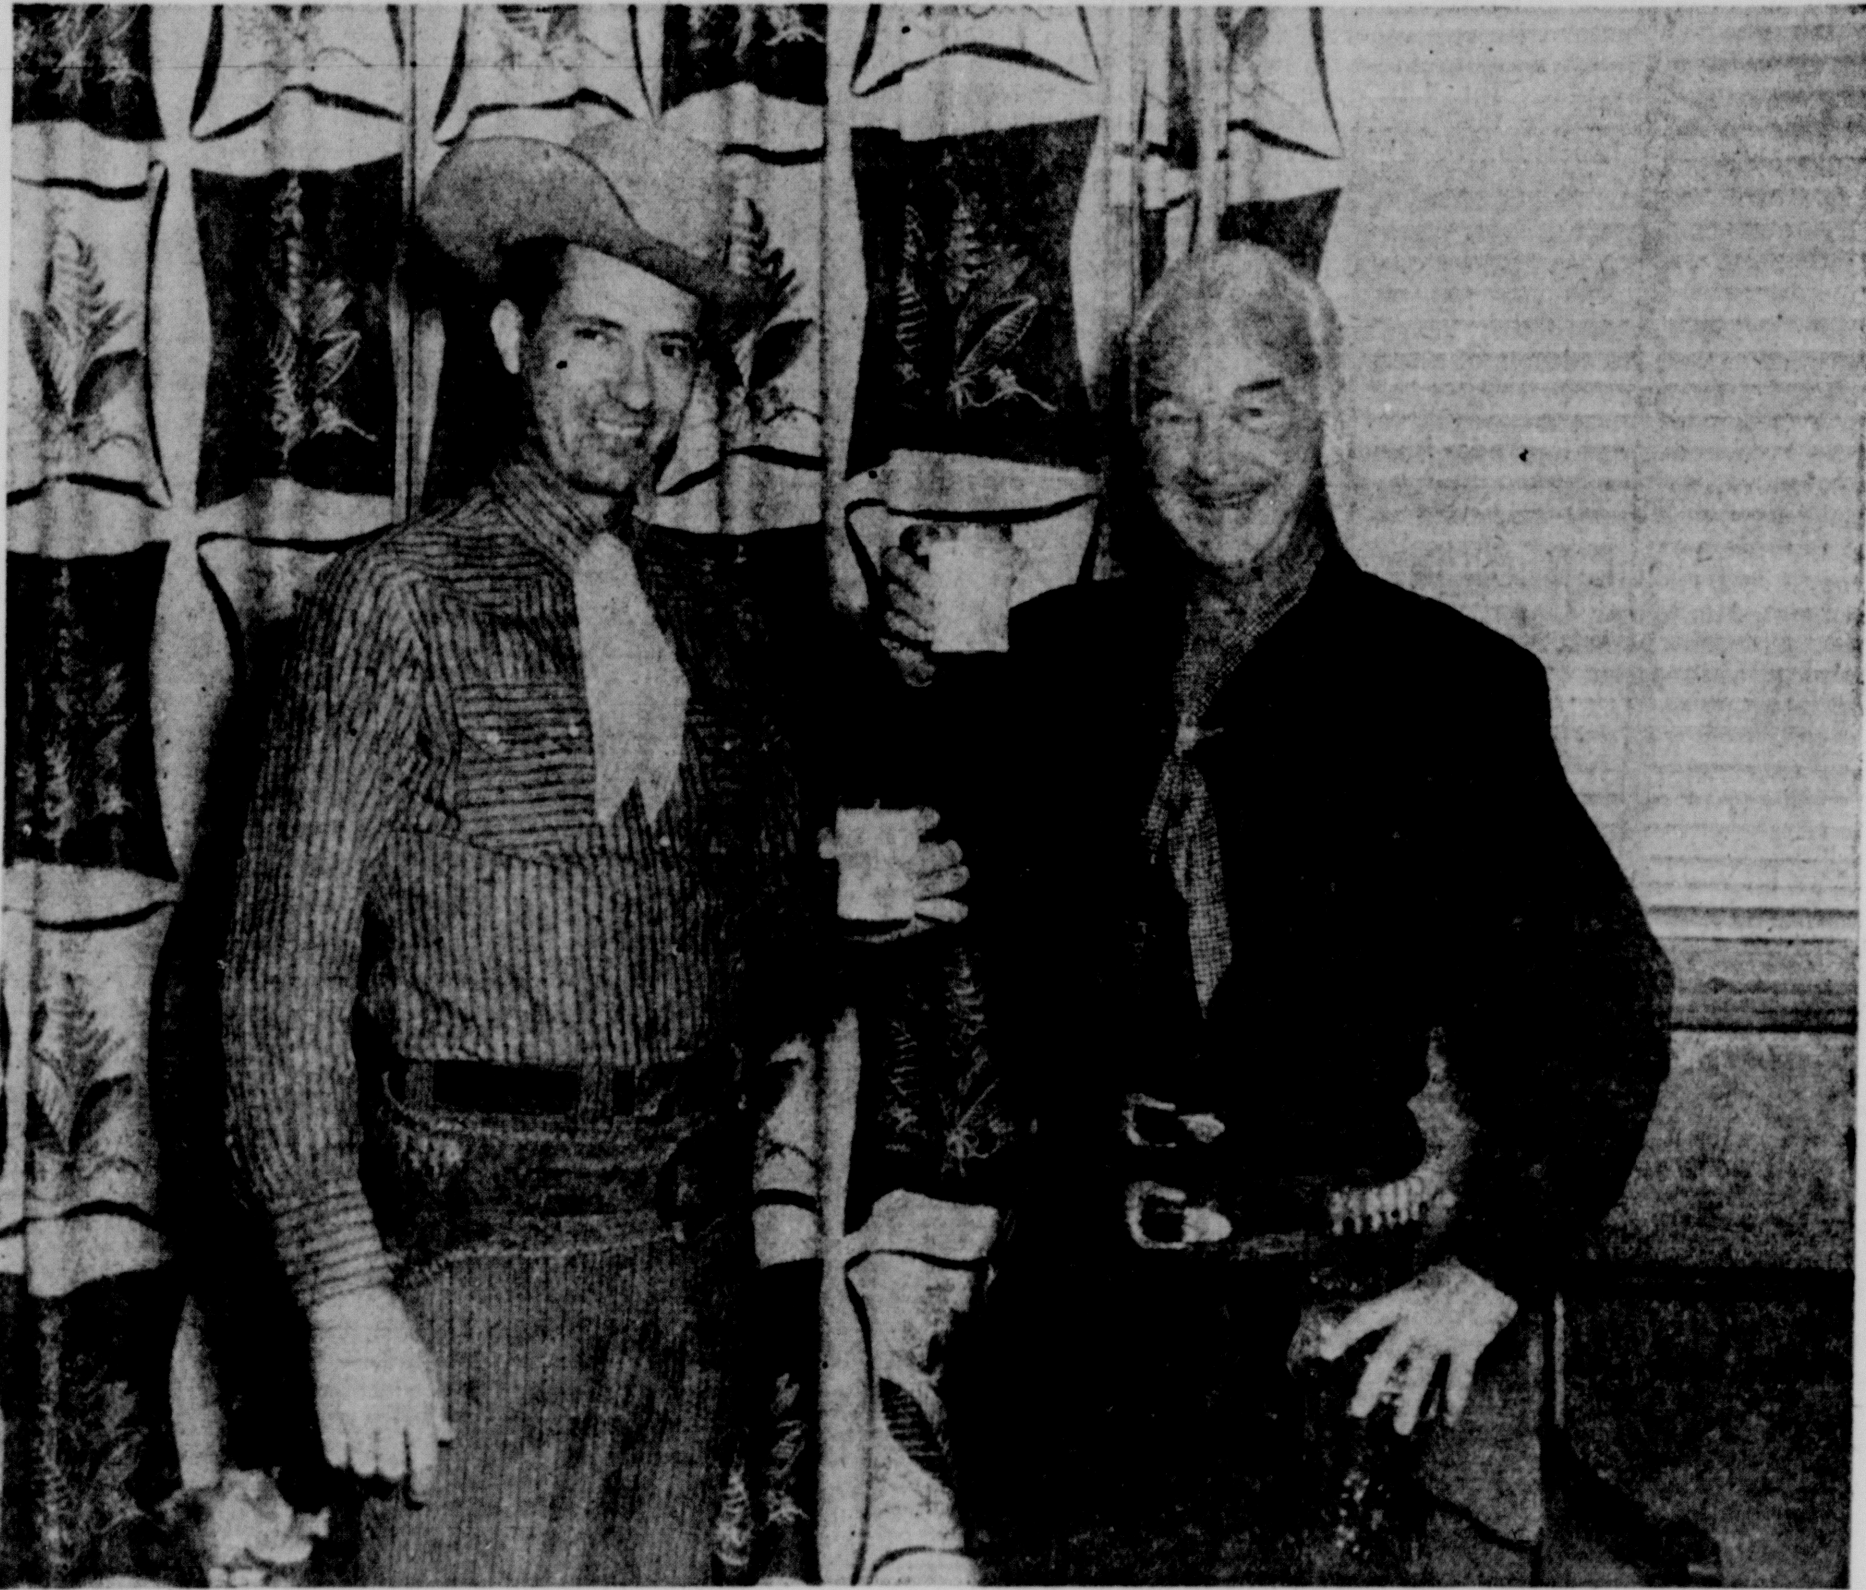

The driver of the other truck was uninjured. Dietrich is employed by the C. F. Replogle Co.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT

Sprains — Blood Donations — Water on the brain

Q. Which is better for a sprain — hot or cold applications?

A — Cold for the first 24 to 48 hours, then hot. Just after a sprain the tissue in and around the joint has a tendency to bleed and become swollen. Cold applications help reduce bleeding and swelling. After a day or two hot applications can be used to help soothe the pain. If there is much swelling and pain, see your doctor. He may want to x-ray the injured joint.

Q. Should people take an iron tonic after donating blood?

A — Yes. Giving blood decreases body iron. Taking iron will help insure more prompt replacement of healthy red blood cells. Blood donation centers usually furnish iron tablets to donors.

Q. Is there any cure for water on the brain?

A — Some cases of hydrocephalus (water on the brain) can be treated — others are almost hopeless. A Boston physician who has had a great deal of experience in this field offers the following advice. If the condition is getting worse but has not yet affected the brain, an operation may help. If the condition is at a standstill the child should be given regular checkups to see if surgery will be needed. If the brain has been badly damaged, the child should simply be given the best care possible until the end. Operations that relieve "water on the brain" are difficult and are not always successful, but some children are helped, even to the point of growing up in a perfectly normal way. Material in MEDICAL MIRROR is based on various scientific publications and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease requires the skill and knowledge which only a physician can apply by personally attending the patient.
